“ To my wonderful Grandma, I miss you so much already. You were such a wonderful woman and the best Grandma I could have ever asked for. I have shared so many memories with you from my childhood and up I will forever cherish and keep close to me and in my heart. I would give anything to spend one more day with you. I'm glad you're in a better place and you're not hurting anymore. That's the worse pain I've ever been through, is watching you hurt like you were. Please keep watch over me and make sure I'm doing what's right for Him. I love you Grandma and let Granddaddy know I love him. Glad you and him can be together again.##imported-begin##Shanna Baggett##imported-end##

“ To Raleigh, Jr., Tommy, and all of the Baggett family; may God grant to you the peace that passes all understanding that can only come from Him. In Matthew 5:4 Jesus said, "Blessed are those who mourn for they shall be comforted." I pray for comfort for you during this time of both mourning and celebration of the life and homegoing of your Mom. All of God's richest blessings to you now and always.

“ In Loving Memory of my "Grandma Baggett" who had a heart of gold, believed in Jesus Christ, and who instilled in me how to be a good person with good morales and values. She was absolutely one the best people I've ever known and she will be deeply missed. I'm very thankful for all of the memories I have from my childhood up to now as an adult, and will cherish them always. She is now in a much bigger and brighter world with her true love my Granddaddy Baggett.##imported-begin##Stephanie Baggett Casper##imported-end##
