“ Mom called last night to tell me the sad news. Aunt Elizabeth has popped into my mind recently in the last year or so, so I guess I knew something was wrong. We lost touch a while back when I no longer got the Christmas cards from her. I will make a donation in her memory. Shirley, I can't find your current address to send a card. We found Joe's address on the web, which I hope is current, so I will send a card in care of him.
Again, please accept our sympathy from Dave and me.

“ Shirley, Regis, Joe & Gayle. I saw in The Pilot about your mothers's death. She was a lovely and beautiful lady. My prayers are with each of you. --Well, the past three years have had many changes for me. Charlie didn't want me in AZ. For many reasons I had to move quickly. No divorce but still a separation. I still do not have my clothes or any personal things. I went to Dallas, Tx, for a year. Fred was a blessing for me, He has not married. Big decision --I made the move to Roswell, GA. near Jeff, Lisa and children: Jeffrey 11 yrs. Jacob 8 yrs. and "my SUNSHINE"--Anna Grace, 3 years old. I do enjoy this area. I see the grandchildren often. Jeff is doing great with his business. Oh! how I remember the the happy times in VA. with all of you. I did have 14 yrs. in AZ. until I was pushed out. I am happy to say, my life here is good. I enjoy my church and it's activities. No place like living in the South! I will welcome you to my condo, I have a guest bedroom, come visit me! Will show you the Atlanta sights. Jeff has a new big home. Much to see here. Set a date and come visit me....

---To every thing there is a season. A time to be born and a time to die.--A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn.

“ Shirley,

I?m really sorry to learn of the loss of your mom. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

You will be surprised to know that I have a picture of your mom in my office The picture includes my parents and daughter Bridget. I enjoy pointing your mom out to a colleague of mine from southern Maryland who takes prides in being a pretty good polo player. I remind him that your mom is from Matthews and was still riding on her 90th birthday.

I?m glad that I got to spend some time with your mom before her health failed her. She told me some stories about you, your dad, and Regis on the boat; about her growing up around Matthews; and about the great-grand babies.

Whenever I think of Mrs. Rowe ? I smile.

Sincerely,
