“ To my dear friends, Scott and Diane,
My prayers are with you. I love you both so much. I know how it feels when someone you love dies suddenly and the pain is so intense. But God will sustain you. Scotty is no longer suffering from his addition. He is in the arms of Jesus and he now has perfect peace, and in a place where God wipes away all tears. I am praying that Jesus will wrap his arms around you with His love and peace.

“ Mom & Pops- I can only imagine how hard this has been for you guys...because I know how difficult its been for me as his sister n law. It could have been any of us kids who have chosen to take the same path-and I know this happened for a reason, although we may not know what the reason was. Maybe it was meant as a wake-up call for that 1 person who hadn't made the decision to sober up & look to God for guidance. Remember, I have been down that road he was on, & its HARD to turn around & go back once youre there...so find comfort in knowing that Scotty is free from those chains that were dragging him down & he no longer has to live every day fighting those demons. You know Im always here for you 2 if you EVER need anything. Your in my heart & prayers-keep your heads up.

“ Scott & Diane, Lordie we all have some good memories about Scotty sitting in the living room with Bruce Jr. He was a hoot. He def was a kind soul. He was always so respectful anytime he was with us. You did a good job with your boys. All three of them were very respectful to us and very anxious to be helpful anytime. We missed not being able to be with you to celebrate Scotty's life. So sorry that someone had to cut the time short that may have allowed him to beat that one daggone monkey on his back. I always held out hope that he'd get that beat. He was good, kind and never seemed to care to hurt a fly. We lived on that street up from you for what, about 19 years! We miss all of you. Tell Terry and Canda and Michael hello for us. Good to see that list of all those grandbabies. I'm sure all of us up here will be doing a lot of remembering this weekend as we all get together. We'll have to have our own little memorial service up here in Michigan. Scott, thanks so much for looking out for me while I had to stay down there until we got our house sold and made the transition to Michigan. We miss good neighbors like you and Diane.

With much sorrow for your loss,
