“ Ernestine was a petite, soft spoken, fine lady. She was one of the "seasoned" citizens that I was fortunate to travel with when my mom, Eva Harness, organized their adventures. Lots of fellowship, love and laughter memories from those bus rides. May the family's memories help ease your sorrow over time. Deepest sympathy

“ I came to know Ernestine so well through her husband Jewell and I greatly admired them both for their kind spirits and warm hearts. As people of Faith they demonstrated their faith daily -- living their lives in service to make the World a better place. I knew them more than 45 years and was honored to be their lawyer. “ Mrs.Rorrer was such a sweet loving lady and such an encouragement to all the young girls at church always ready to give showers for weddings and babies. She was loved by all of us then and still today.
