“ Gene and I were in Jaycees together in the sixties. He was a good man and a good citizen who looked out for his fellow man.

His death is a loss to the Cradock community and he will be missed.

He should be remembered for his kindness.

My sympathy to his family and friends.

May he rest in eternal peace.

“ I cherish the memories of the childhood years, as we laughed, and romped, and played. I cherish the memories of the teenage years through the teasing and taunting days. I cherish the memories of two older siblings as we doted on a much younger one. I cherish the memories of a kind uncle sharing with nieces and nephews his gifts and fun. I cherish the memories of how proud he was while driving in his shiny new convertible car. So through the tears and passing days, along with quiet times, these memories won't be far. Rest in peace brother dear, Carol

I remember Grandma telling me about the Company Man and I also remember him taking Amy and I for a ride in his convertible. I know he is resting well in Heaven and sharing good times with Granddaddy, Grandma, and Arlene. Until we meet again Uncle Gene!
