

Eugene Willis

April 1, 2020

Charles Eugene Willis, 69, passed away on April 1, 2020. Eugene was a native of Edmond, West Virginia and grew up in Portsmouth, Virginia.

He was proud to be an American and a Marine. He served his country through two tours of duty in Vietnam. After Vietnam, he moved to Atlanta where he lived for 20 years. There he became employed in the printing industry and won many trophies for his printing work. While in Atlanta he pitched for the Industrial Baseball League and was a Braves fan.

Eugene never meet a stranger. He loved to help people. He was very competitive and good at everything he did. He loved to play darts, fish, garden, play football, baseball and enjoyed karaoke at the Barrell.

He will be laid to rest at the Albert G. Horton Jr Memorial Veterans Cemetery in Suffolk, Virginia.

A celebration of his life will be held later.
