Eunice Hilburn Sticher, 91, died March 22, 2005 at her home. She was a native of Bladenboro, North Carolina and a member of Alexander Baptist Church.

Mrs. Sticher was preceded in death by her husband of 69 years, Erskine A. Sticher. She is survived by a daughter, Mary Ellen Bennett and husband Ralph, three granddaughters Cris Force and husband Ed, Lynn Griffin and husband James and Marie Gary, five great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandson, all of Atlanta, GA; a sister, Julia Campbell of Raeford, NC and many nieces and nephews. She was dearly loved by her family and friends and will be sorely missed.

A funeral will be held at 2:00PM Friday in Loving Funeral Home, Churchland Chapel, by Dr. Archie S. Corbin, Jr. and Rev. David Van Hook. Music will be provided by Tommy Heath. Interment will be in Greenlawn Memorial Gardens. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service and they suggest memorial contributions to Union Mission Ministries of Norfolk.

The family wishes to express love and appreciation to our angel on earth, Carolyn Branch, to whom we could never properly express all that she has meant to Eunice and to us; to Nancy and Bob Hogan, to Elizabeth and David Van Hook, and to Marian Hersey for their extraordinary love and care.
