“ Evelyn was a dear friend and I will miss her! She has changed addresses and is now where she longed to be with Jesus. The Father has said to her “Well done”! She was a gifted teacher and loved the word of God. Most of all she loved to intercede through her prayers for others. Her heart was to be like an Anna in the Bible who got to pray all day long. She accomplished more in her prayer room than any one will know on this side of heaven. Heaven is even better now because she is there.

“ *I am standing by the seashore.
A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean.
She is an object of beauty and strength,
and I stand and watch
until at last she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sun and sky come down to mingle with each other.*

*Then someone at my side says, ‘There she goes!
Gone where? Gone from my sight – that is all.*

*She is just as large in mast and hull and spar
as she was when she left my side and just as able to bear her load of living freight to the places of destination.
Her diminished size is in me, not in her.*

*And just at the moment when someone at my side says,
‘There she goes! ‘ ,
there are other eyes watching her coming,
and other voices ready to take up the glad shout :
‘Here she comes!’*

*Henry van Dyke
I love you Evelyn and I too will make this journey and know you and Jesus will be welcoming me home.
Your loving husband,
Ronnie*

Ronnie....it's been many years since being with you all but all memories are of such a loving, spiritual family who added a calming faith wherever they were. I'm sorry for your loss but know that there will be a day of a joyful gathering for those that love the Lord. God bless you. Your note about her passing is one of the most beautiful I've ever read. May God bless you in the days ahead. With much love from Texas, Kay Jenkins Hevelow ❤️

“My heart is so sad right now that I can't even think of any specific event, but so many sweet memories of Evelyn & me laughing and simply having fun times together. She's been my sister-in-law for 55 years, but more importantly, a friend that I always enjoyed being with. Evelyn had a kind, sweet, gentle spirit that brought comfort to me and many others. I loved her as a sweet part of our family and as a dear friend, and I will miss her.
