Faye married Leon Hubert Moore on July 5, 1958 in the original Deep Creek Baptist Church where she was a member. They later had two children, Wanda and Leon, Jr. "Lee." Faye and Leon had been married 41 years when he passed away. She worked at Montgomery Ward as a sales associate.

Faye was also predeceased by her parents, Josephine Covington Moses and Marvin Edward Moses; her son, Leon H. "Lee." Moore, Jr. She is survived by her daughter, Wanda M. Faye was a loving and faithful wife, mother and Nana. She was a model homemaker, always striving for an immaculate home. She was a dedicated caregiver who gave with her whole heart. She was an exceptional cook, known for her fried chicken. Faye enjoyed gardening, crafts, sewing and dancing. She loved to decorate, and the holidays were a big deal at her house. She had a special place in her heart for the mountains, especially in the fall. She loved to laugh and have fun! She had a big heart and always put her family first. While she will be greatly missed, Faye is most certainly in Heaven with a sweet, peaceful smile on her face.

“ Wanda, I just saw your mom’s obit. I was so sorry to hear it and that you had lost your brother too. I had no idea Lee was gone. I went to school with your mom and did her hair some in my home beauty shop in Broadmoor. You might not remember me, but I sure remember you. You have lost so many of your loved ones from a fiancée, your brother, and now your loving and sweet mother. Thinking of uou. Nancy Childress.

“ Aunt Faye, you have been on my mind recently. Maybe this is why. I do see both yours and Dad's High School Graduation pictures in Alumni Hall since I am now a high school teacher at Deep Creek High School.
