“ "We die as often as we lose a friend."
-Publilius Syrus

I first met Fran and her family in Greece in the early 1960's. Over the past decade we have had the opportunity to enjoy a close friendship. I have been blessed to call Fran my friend. We have shared many laughs and some tears too, had long talks about the events that have shaped our lives over the past 44 years, traveled and shared many fun times. In the face of this last diagnosis, she drew upon her faith, strength, and courage to face her own fears, and unselfishly worried more for her family and friends than herself. Fran is my sister "of choice". I will miss you my friend!###imported-begin##Sue Armstrong##imported-end##
