“ Remembering my days at Lake Taylor Junior High in Norfolk, Virginia in the late 60's, I had a math teacher named Mr. Kuhn. He was such a kind and gentle person, I remember looking forward to his class. I believe it might have been Mr. Kuhn as I'm looking at the memories. Rest In Sweet Peace, Mr. Kuhn. - Debbie Morgan Bussell

“ Yes, just found this by looking him up. Mr. Kuhn was the most caring teacher I had. He made me appreciate and love math but more importantly a very understanding and caring person. I have never forgotten your teachings and understanding and help Mr. Kuhn. You have stayed in my heart. (Circa 1985, Green Run High)

“ I'll never forget the time I was visiting Grandpa and for some reason I called him Gramps. I received a much needed lecture that day and I'm so thankful for it. It taught me a lot about respecting others and I know I'm a better person today just from that one talk. Grandpa is someone that I will always remember as a kind, giving, caring and loving man. I will forever miss you until we meet again! I love you Grandpa!

“ Dear Linda, Karl, and Michael,
We met your Dad and Mom at the USNA, prep school, Bainbridge. This was my first duty station as a Naval Officer from OCS as an English Instructor. We enjoyed many good times during the 2 years we were stationed at Bainbridge together. Jane and I were expecting our first child, Ellen and you Dad was very helpful to us. We have 6 children: Ellen, Denise and Diane(twins), Ray Jr., Cyndi, and Robert,
Our deepest sympathy for you loss; you Dad was a great man to be associated with. Your Dad and you are in our prayers.
Love, Ray and Jane Hart, Virginia Beach, VA

“ "Fritz" was a resident at Sunstone Apartments in Chesapeake and very well liked by all his neighbors. He was such an intelligent man and often "entertained" us with quoting poems or sayings of famous people. Many of the residents called him Santa Clause. I know his family will sadly miss their father.
