

Frank Mitchell

May 10, 2025

Robert “Frank” Mitchell, 65, of Chesapeake Virginia passed away peacefully on May 10, 2025, at his home.

Frank was a loving father, friend and will be missed by all who knew him.

Frank worked as an electrician at the Norfolk Naval Shipyard (NNSY), where he was respected for his dedication and knowledge. He loved helping his family and friends with various projects, always bringing his assistance and a smile.

In his free time, Frank enjoyed watching cooking shows and trying out new recipes. He also had a fondness for playing the lottery, always hopeful for a big win.

Frank was predeceased by his mother Jeannie T. Mitchell; his father William F. Mitchell; his sister Deborah Stevenson; and brother’s Charles Mitchell and George Mitchell.

He is survived by his daughters, Kelly Mitchell, Megan Ryan and her husband Nick; his stepson, Jeffrey Lauver and four grandchildren, Gabriel Henderson, Nathaniel Ryan, Silas Mitchell and Sterling Mitchell.

A celebration of life will be held at 11 am Saturday, May 24, 2025 by Rev.

Randy Duncan in the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of Virginia, The Addus Hope Foundation.

“ Frank was ever faithful in looking in on his mother after his dad passed. I remember his cheerfulness and caring for her. My memories go back many years to when I first met him as a toddler, afraid of the train whistle. He grew up to become a very caring man, who become a skilled first responder devoting many hours to this worthy pursuit. Memories of him continue to warm my heart.
