“ Steve, Terri and Gina and all the family. Your Mom and Dad were among our first "early married" friends and we shared many good times together. We lived in the same apartment building so we saw each other often. We also worked in the same office for quite a while - that's where we met. In recent years we drifted apart as far as seeing each other but they and your family were always in our thoughts. They are missed. God bless.##imported-begin##Julie Jernigan##imported-end##

“ It was with much sadness that I learned of George's passing. Rosal and George were great friends of Linda and I in the mid 50'; George was best man at our wedding in 1956. He and Rosal and we attended many dances and other social functions as young folks living in the Portsmouth area. He was a fine man, a great American and a very good friend. Our sincere wishes to the family.
