Gerald David Guinazzo

Orlando, Florida – "Gerry" Guinazzo passed away at his home on July 5, 2009. He is survived by his wife, Phyllis Guinazzo, his daughter, Vallerie Black, extended family, and many friends and loved ones whom he considered family.

Retired from the Navy Seabees and subsequently the Portsmouth Police Department, Gerry and Phyllis moved to Orlando in 1999 where they have enjoyed countless evenings at the Epcot Center, listening to their favorite Mariachi bands, and spending time with their Floridian friends who have been a great source of friendship.

Friends and family will meet at Loving Funeral Home Churchland Chapel on July 9 at 1:30p.m. for a procession to Greenlawn Memorial Gardens and Mausoleum Airline Blvd, Chesapeake, where a graveside service will take place at 2:00 p.m.

Tribute Wall

“ Dear Phyllis and Vallerie,
Sorry to hear of Gerry's passing. It was just by chance I saw the obituary. Many good times. I have repeatedly told the "Thanksgiving Dinner and Zombie mixed drink" story about the two of us wandering around the back yard after consuming just the smallest quantity of Zombie. Gerry was concerned he was going to end up in the lake! He held onto one of the pine trees long enough for me to get there to him like I was going to be able to help!. Neither of us ended up in the lake. Phyllis, seeing us in the back yard, motioned for us to return to the house. I think she must have thrown out the rest of the Zombie mix, after see us two zombies clinging to trees.##imported-begin##David Hartman##imported-end##

“ Val,
I just found out about your Dad yesterday. I'm so sorry I didn't know. I'll never forget that you were there for me when my Dad died. You and your mom are both in my thoughts. And I'll send up a little prayer too. Hope we can talk soon.

Love,

“ Phyllis, Valerie,

We send our deepest condolences. We missed Jerry greatly when you moved to Florida, many more missed him too.

We were at the Beach for the 4th and were talking about him, remembering the good times. We know there will be a great void.

Thank you for allowing us the quiet goodbye.##imported-begin##Dickie & Mary Journee##imported-end##

“ Some would say you were a hard man to understand, but we know differently. Even a happy life cannot be without a measure of darkness, and the word happy would lose its meaning if it were not balanced by sadness. It is far better to take things as they come along with patience and equanimity. Our prayers are with you. ##imported-begin## Mary & Tom Crusie ##imported-end##
