

Gerda Glasco

May 22, 2020

Gerda Grawemeyer Glasco, born in Tecklenburg, Germany, passed away on May 22, 2020, in Portsmouth, Virginia, due to heart failure. She was 82 years old. Gerda was predeceased by her parents, Karolina and Richard Grawemeyer, and siblings Erich Grawemeyer, Gunther Grawemeyer, Erika Schenk and Helga Batschke, all of Germany.

She was also predeceased by her husband of 52 years, Donald D. Glasco, of Woodbridge, Virginia. She is survived by her three children, Beverly (Mark) Fowler, Barbara (Gary) Miller, and Martin (Alice) Glasco, and her six beautiful grandchildren, Amy Fowler, Morgan Glasco, Lindsey Barber (Levi), Erin Fowler, Meredith Glasco and Carter Glasco, all residing in Virginia. In addition, she is survived by one sister, Ilse Schenk, one brother, Klaus Grawemeyer, and numerous nieces and nephews, residing in both Germany and the United States.

Gerda came to the United States in 1960, where she met her future husband, Donald, and they lived in Woodbridge, Virginia for over 50 years. She attended St. Paul United Methodist Church and was active in different civic clubs over the years. She enjoyed classical music, flowers, traveling and languages.

Internment will be in Louisa, Virginia.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the The Alzheimer's Foundation of America, <https://alzfdn.org/> or to your favorite charity.

“ Oma was so kind and treated us like we were family from the very first time we met. Her beautiful smile was all you needed to see to know that she was such a sweet person. I pray that your precious memories will eventually overwhelm your sadness with peace.
