“ I send my condolences to my grandmothers children, Bonnie, Terry, Linda, and Robbie. And also to all of her friends and family that will miss her. I am so sorry but I guess that god chose this time for her to come live with him. God Bless Her. She was so sweet and loved her family so much. I still remember coming to visit for the holidays and she would be making little smokies in a blanket and little smokies in mustard sauce, along with lots of other great tasting food. So I propose that we have a wonderful feast and enjoy eachothers company and fill up on on food for the holidays in contribution to Nanny and how much she loved these times.##imported-begin##Casey Feldhausen##imported-end##
