“Granny I have so many wonderful memories of you that I couldn't begin to write them all here. I feel honored to have had such a beautiful person as a grandparent to me and will cherish all the time you spent with me over the years and the amazing food you cooked for me from the bottom of your soul. Your truthful words you spoke to me in good times and bad. I remember that amazing day I said I do and thought you weren't going to be able to be there for me and how it just wouldn't feel the same without you there but by some miracle you recovered enough in the hospital to get there (despite having to be pushed around in a wheelchair) and see me walk down the isle. You stayed strong as an OX through some trying times over the years. You were definitely AMAZING GRACE even though you liked to be called Marie instead. I hope your resting now my sweet Granny and I hope your happy and at peace. I love you more than you will ever know.

“ I will miss you Granny "Rie" , and I will never forget all the great memories and good times that we all had together. I love you and know that you are watching over us all.

All of our hearts are broken now, but we surely will be reunited one day in heaven.

Love You Granny, Your Grandson Troy Godfrey
