

Grace Johnson Wright

August 25, 2014

Grace Johnson Wright, age 90, a lifetime resident of Portsmouth, went to be with the Lord on August 25, 2014. She attended Carson-Newman College, followed by nursing school. She married the love of her life and supported him in his business endeavors. She was a faithful member of Western Branch Baptist Church and taught the Gleaners Bible Class. She was known for her knowledge of the Bible and her ability to pass that knowledge on to others. She was a lifelong member of The Order of the Eastern Star and was awarded a life membership to the Virginia Congress of Parents & Teachers. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She was predeceased by her husband of 58 years, Charles A. Wright and her parents Grace and Raby Johnson. She is survived by her two daughters, Carolyn W. Rowe and Janet W. Humphries; former son-in-law, John Rowe (Carol); three grandchildren, Jennifer McDonald (Thad), Brian Rowe (Amanda), and Jason Humphries (Katie); six great-grandchildren, Nicholas McDonald, Carter and Payton Rowe, and Wyland, Christian, and Skylar Grace Humphries; sister, Charlotte J. Damron; in-laws, Bill and Dottie Swain and many other cherished family members.

The family would like to thank Grace's loving caregivers, Allyson (niece), Janice, Natalie, Joanna, and Sandra, and the devoted staff at Province Place. The family will greet friends at Loving Funeral Home, Churchland Chapel, Friday from 6:30-7:30pm. A service to celebrate Grace's life will be held at 1:00pm Saturday at the funeral with interment to follow at Meadowbrook Memorial Gardens. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association or to CHKD.

“ I am thankful to have crossed paths with Grace through our church. Not only did she know and share the Bible, she also showed much love and generosity to others. I will always be grateful to her for her loving kindness to my sister-in-law, Virginia Brett. My prayers are with all the family at this time.
