

Gregory Spencer

August 28, 2024

Gregory Wayne Spencer, 50, passed away on August 28, 2024, in Portsmouth, Virginia surrounded by his loving family. Greg was known for his larger-than-life personality, charismatic presence, and infectious sense of humor. He was a diehard Raiders fan. He enjoyed bowling, cornhole, and golf. Above all, he cherished time with the love of his life, Julie, and their family.

Greg graduated from Norview High School and built a fulfilling career at Sumitomo Drive Technologies, where he was valued not only as an employee but as a family member among his colleagues.

He leaves behind his loving wife, Julie; his mother Patricia Caron; his children Tyler, Triston, Cade, Noah, Aylah and Spencer; his sister, Beverly Hamlin and her husband Robert; his brother, Joe Caron and wife Melissa; niece Alicia Hamlin; nephews Michael Baller and Derek Hamlin; and his best buddy, Brandon Barnes. Greg was predeceased by his father Gary Spencer and his stepfather, Joe Caron.

A visitation will be held on September 14, 2024, from 4:00-5:30pm at Loving Funeral Home.

Greg's life was a testament to living joyfully and loving deeply, leaving a lasting impact on all who knew him.
