“ Wally was my manager at ORNL for several years, and coined a saying that I quote often: "Old patent attorneys never die, we just become prior art." I will miss you, my old friend.##imported-begin##Joseph Marasco##imported-end##

“ Dearest Sarah, Jonathan, Joshua, and Elizabeth, We are so sorry for your loss of your precious Mother, Father, Grandmother, and Grandfather. We know how precious they were to you and how God worked in their lives and your lives through your relationship. May God comfort you and encourage you in the precious memories that you have. They will always be a part of you, and we are so happy that you will be reunited in the Lord's Heaven. Love, Lyle, Ana Maria, and children##imported-begin##Lyle and Ana Maria Blevins##imported-end##

“ Hi Aunt Nancy and all the family,
I am very sad and disappointed that I was not able to find someone to work for me so that I could come with mom to honor Uncle Wally and his wonderful life. I enjoyed the times that I spent with Uncle Wally and he always made everything so much fun. One of the best times I remember is when he took Keith, Kevin and I crabbing on the Urbana River. I was so excited and we saw jellyfish for the first time. Uncle Wally was a great tour guide when I took Mom and Aunt Rosie to Oakridge, TN. I am so sorry for your loss, but I know from experince that even though our loved ones have made the journey to the next lifetime, they still watch over us and pray for us who are left behind on this earth. God bless you all! Love & prayers,
Chrissy.##imported-begin##Chrissy Sheperd##imported-end##
