“ Dear Lucille, even though I have not seen you nor Harold for years, I have fond memories of the times we visited with you at Ella's home. My mother, Wilma, always told me many stories about family get-togethers. My family and I extend our deepest sympathy to you and your family.##imported-begin##Helen Alton Sweeney##imported-end##

“ Dear Lucille and family,
My mother, Phyllis Alton Ruf, myself and our families extend to you our deepest sympathy in the loss of Harold. We only learned of his passing this week. We also lost mother's sister, Lois, who died on August 31 in Florence SC. I remember Harold as a very kind man who always was interested in life. Harold and Lucille were important in my mother's childhood years when they lived in Parkersburg WV. Our love to you Lucille. You are in our prayers.

“ God's richest blessings on this family as they grieve the death of their loved one. His tribute to me on his deathbed was "good man" and it still echoes in my ears. I consider it a high honor to participate in Mr. Taylor's homegoing service. Revelation 14:13 tells us that "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." What a legacy you have left us.##imported-begin##Ramon Owens##imported-end##

“ The world will be dimmer with the loss of such a point of light as Mr. Taylor, but Heaven has gained a shining star. Our fondest memories of him all have to do with him helping someone else. We are so sorry for your loss, but what a legacy he leaves behind. God bless and comfort his family, especially his beloved Lucille.##imported-begin##Joe and Shannon Lavender##imported-end##
