

Harry Westmoreland Torbert

September 15, 2010

Harry Westmoreland Torbert, 69, passed away on September 15, 2010 at Maryview Hospital after a long battle with diabetes and associated complications. He is survived by his brother, Nathaniel T. Torbert IV and his wife, Noriko Torbert of Virginia Beach. He is also survived by his three daughters, Marni L. Muhlenbruch & her husband, James Muhlenbruch, Jennifer Stokes Torbert, Kelli A. Peele & her husband Phillip A. Peele, all of Portsmouth; three grandchildren, Tyler Muhlenbruch, Kali and Ethan Peele, and also two nephews.

He was a police officer for the City of Portsmouth and retired after twenty-five years of service. Until stopped by illness, he served with the Portsmouth Service Sheriff's Department. He also served in the United States Army.

Harry will be missed by all who knew him.

A funeral service will be held at 10:00 a.m. Saturday in Loving Funeral Home by Reverend Steve Bingham. The family will receive friends in the funeral home Friday from 7-8p.m. and suggest memorial contributions to the American Diabetes Association.

Tribute Wall

“ Worked with Harry for the better part of the 25 years he was on the PD. Always smiling and joking. A real friend. We grew apart after our retirement, but I thought of him often. RIP, Dirty Harry, you were a good friend and a good cop and you will be missed...##imported-begin##Bruce D. Albright##imported-end##

September 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ I remember the days of waitressing at Dennis's and Harry coming in all the time. He treated me and a few of the other girls like daughters. I loved him like another dad and miss him dearly. I knew him on and off since I was a little kid and will always love and cherish him.##imported-begin##michelle carroll sessoms##imported-end##

September 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ i work at dennis in western branch n harry would always come in there with a big smile on his face like nothin was wrong wit him.he would make me feel better all the time he will be missed.im so sorry for your lost.##imported-begin##Tracy H##imported-end##

September 16, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ I grew I up Kelli and Harry, or "Dad" as I called him, always treated me like another daughter. I'll remember his not always clean, haha jokes, his warm smile and hugs. I've said many prayers for my wonderful best friend Kelli and all of Harry's family and friends and I hope you all find comfort in one another.##imported-begin##Lee Ann Evangelo Hellman##imported-end##

September 15, 2010 at 12:00 AM