

Heather Seaman

January 26, 2020

Heather Seaman, 54, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on January 26th, 2020. Heather was born in Knox County, Maine.

She was a woman of God who praised Jesus through her prayer and song. She was a talented musician who played guitar and composed several songs. She had a hobby of painting and other creative forms of Art. She was a passionate educator who homeschooled her children and encouraged their exploration of many interests. She was an avid animal rescuer who always had an open door and open heart. She leaves behind her children who carry her many talents.

A celebration of life will be held at 2 pm on February 9th, 2020 at Hickory Ridge Community Church, 3320 S Battlefield Blvd, Chesapeake.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

FEB 9. 2:00 PM (ET)

Hickory Ridge Community Church
3320 S Battlefield Blvd.
Chesapeake, VA 23322