

Helen Haire Seible

August 3, 2015

Helen Haire Seible died peacefully on August 3rd. She was born to Chester and Helen Haire in the Bronx of New York. She lived many years in Vero Beach, FL before moving to Virginia. She was a fine, gracious lady who lived life her way for most of her 94 years.

She was a mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and matriarch of our family and was proud to be all of them. She was a tough young lady growing up in New York City when she met her future husband, Lawrence G. Seible, who preceded her in death. As a couple, they worked hard in the hotel business and became one of the most successful people in the NYC hotel industry with Sheraton and later Hilton hotels.

She is survived by her daughter, Dianne Lundquist (Nils) of Congers, NY, and her son, Captain Lawrence G. Seible II (Vicki), USN, retired of Portsmouth, VA and OBX, NC; grandchildren Robert Looney (Mary Jo) of Bethlehem, PA; Kevin Looney (Loreen) of Valley Cottage, NY; Michael Looney (Linda) of New City, NY; great-grandchildren Kristin (Todd), Jacob, Juliane, and John Robert; and one of her favorite Airedale terriers, Mack.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Portsmouth Humane Society or the Westminster Canterbury residents fund.

A private ceremony will be held at St. Patrick's Cathedral, The Cemetery of the Gate of Heaven, Hawthorne, NY.

The family would like to thank the many caregivers at Westminster Canterbury in Va. Beach on the 3rd Floor Enhanced Services and all the angels of mercy at the Hoy Center. Thank you so much for your compassionate care of Helen.

Tribute Wall

CJ

“ Dear Family of Mrs. Seible,
May your memories of the wonderful times you shared with your loved one comfort you and your family, today and always. Mrs.
Seible was a very gracious woman and will be greatly missed.
Yours Truly,
Mrs. Cherry Jett

Cherry Jett - August 17, 2015 at 03:37 PM