

Henry Eugene Schwartz

September 1, 2007

Henry Eugene Schwartz, 95, passed away on September 1, 2007. He was a native of Wilkes Barre, PA. He was a Naval Veteran of WWII and Korea and retired as a CW04. During WWII he served in the Atlantic and Pacific Theaters, was one of the Tin Can Sailors and was in Tokyo when the Peace Treaty was signed. Henry is also a member of the Retired Officers Association.

Henry was predeceased by his wife, Kathleen VanDerberry Schwartz, 2 sons, John C. Schwartz, James R. Schwartz and his brother, Frank Schwartz. He is survived by his daughter, Margaret Hall and her husband, Melvin; 2 granddaughters, DeVonne Presson, Patti Cattenhead; 2 great-granddaughters, Shellie Derrick and Jessica Jomni; 3 great-great-grandchildren, Alexis Derrick, Caitlin Derrick and Maher Jomni and his sister, Emma Foisy of Dartmouth, Mass.

A graveside service will be held at 2:00p.m. Wednesday in Woodlawn Memorial Gardens with Full Military Honors. The family will receive friends in Loving Funeral Home, Churchland Chapel Tuesday from 7-8p.m. and they suggest memorial contributions to the Suffolk Humane Society.

Tribute Wall

“ When I think of Papa I think about the wedding gift he made from a card he and his wife had received. He put Donnie and Janis on it along with our wedding date. This handmade gift from a then 85 year-old still means so much and that's how I'll remember him. My love to you all. Janis##imported-begin##Janis Gleason##imported-end##

September 04, 2007 at 12:00 AM