“ To the family of PapaLee-
I was very blessed to have grown up knowing papaLee, I will never forget all the fun times I had at the barn. He would always make me feel so loved and like I was part of the family which meant the world to me. Those memories I will hold close to my heart always from picking eggs out of the barn for breakfast, riding horses, the awesome slip and slide he made, and all the volleyball games. I love you all and wish I could be there, I hope peace and happy thoughts find you all!
Love

“ When we were kids, Hershel was about 12..and I was 7..we were playing hide and seek with a bunch of other cousins...Well Hershel, hid in my Dads car...Smartie me, found him and yanked. The door open..Then we had a TUG of WAR. WITH him trying to close the door before the others spotted him..Well you know a 12 yr. Old BOY is Stronger than a 7 yr.Old GIRL.ANY DAY...I ended up with my little hand closed in the car door.....Poor fella felt so bad....But not as hurt as ME.....loved my Uncle Hershey....Sheilah Locklear

“ I am proud to have known Hershel Wilson. He was a real cowboy, gentleman and friend. Always a warm hand-shake and hug with every visit. Wisdom and kindness was his creed. I feel honored having witnessed his beautiful courtship with Jo this year. Endless hours of laughter and joy filled their hearts.

May God ease the pain and lessen the sorrow of his dear family and friends. The loving memories of this wonderful man and father will bring us joy forever.

Your gal pal,

Uncle was a character! He loved and looked out for his three little darlings, Sheilah, Donnie and me, Cheryl! He was only seven years older than Donnie and me so we have a lot of memories!! I worked with him in Calif..fun fun fun! He is in his death like sleep now until the resurrection John 5:28-29.... See you in the New world uncle, be there when you awake! 🎵 Till we meet again 🎵 Sweet dreams...much Christian love to the family you and Aunt JoAnn made!! We all loved her too....
