“ I also heard about Mr. Banks passing from the Children's Museum Coleman Collection docent. Hezzie was one of the first people who I met when I moved back to Western Branch as a teenager. Before the internet, it was more of a challenge to find answers about plant funguses and soil types and Hezzie was always there to help me as I re-landscaped my parent's yard. He taught me all about growing flowers in the hot and humid Chesapeake summers and I will never forget the sweet tomatoes that he grew to the size of softballs. He even gave me his secret organic fertilizer ingredient which I have used for the past 30 years. I greatly appreciated his quiet confidence and his generous spirit. He was so genuine and authentic that he stood out as someone who you wanted to talk to and learn from. I know I had over 50 conversations with him before I moved again. The number and breadth of tributes here are a wonderful testament to his impact. I hope he rests in peace, gentle soul.

“ I was told of Heze's passing when I visited Winter Wonderland at the Courthouse yesterday. It was wonderful to see the memories there and the beautiful paintings of the people that made it special. Started going to Coleman's with my mom when I was young and took my children there until it closed. Heze would help my mom when we shopped at Coleman's Nursery many years ago. He knew everything about gardens, plants, grass! Always loved seeing that great smile. Rest in peace Heze. You were loved by many.

“ I was online searching for old Coleman Nursery Christmas info and happened to see this.

I worked with Heze at Coleman's in the late 1980s. My first job. Even so long ago, thinking back now to such a great time and place, this is sad to have found but I'm glad I did. Heze was a great man to be around and I learned a lot from him over 18 mos as a young man starting my way in the work world. The impression he made on me comes back as I see this. Kind, helpful, sought out by everyone who visited the nursery and who knew him. He was everyone's Go-To.

A man of faith, I know he had a great life. He worked at a fantastic place with great people, all friends. I loved it, and he obviously did too. What a nice man to have known.

Rest in peace sir, and thank you.

“ I worked with Hezzie from 1986 to 2003 when we closed the doors at Coleman's Nursery... He would always come visit me in the Snow Palace when I was working ...let me go when I needed to . But I always remember ..his loving smile and his Great hug rule... 8 hugs a day made your stress go away .. he hugged everyone in that he worked with and hundreds of others while working his shift ...you are truly missed not only a coworker but my family since 1985..

“ Hezzie was one of my first real “bosses”; along with Floyd and Selma. I was a teenager and worked hours pricing the flower picks and christmas ornaments. He was so supportive of me and also helped my mother over the years as she tried her hand at gardening...in our house just off the back lot of the Coleman's property. Rest in peace. “ Hezze was one the best men I've ever known. I frequented Coleman's with my Grandmother as a child, and shopped there as an adult. I was ALWAYS greeted by his beautiful, sweet smile and a great big hug! He was the highlight of every trip and always sent me home with my very own strawberry plant. I will never forget how kind, gentle and loving he was and he will forever hold a special place in my heart. May he rest in peace for all eternity. I love you, Hezze. <3

“ You could never have a sweeter, kinder more gentle neighbor than Mr. Banks. Over the years he became more than a neighbor, he became family. "Uncle Hessie" will forever be in my heart!

“ Mr Banks was a very kind sweetheart he was my neighbor ❤️ Always had a smile on his face such a sweet person. I would come home to find he had cut my grass and put flowers in the yard. He didn't mind helping others I would tell him you don't have to do that and he would say that's what neighbors do help one another. He will truly be missed 😭💔💔💔

“ My Dad Coleman Morgan frequented Coleman’s nursery with me as a child. Heze was always kind and friendly. Daddy was an outstanding judge of good character and would not disparage people yet would avoid them. He loved laughing and joking with Heze. Thinking of you loss brings back the loss of my Dad. May all the wonderful memories carry you now.

“ Every time I ever went to Coleman's to say that he was helpful, does not even begin to describe it. He would chat with you, always asked how you were doing, and he was genuine. The mark he left cannot be duplicated.

Our loss, heavens gain. Heze cared. He loved and was so proud of his family. Smart as a whip and had the answer to all your questions, he helped you with kindness and humor. Kind, patient and caring and we were blessed he was our friend and mentor. Thank you Heze for all your help over the years. God bless.

I'm not sure I can put into words how big of a loss Heze is to me-For 68 years we were friends, went fishing together, went on trips, and played! We worked together for 49 years through both sadness and joys in our lives. I felt we were always there supporting each other. Coleman Nursery was Heze's life and he made Coleman's complete!! Rest in peace, my friend!!!
