“ Ilene and her family were our neighbors on Dogwood Dr. for many years. She was always so sweet to us and such a lady. In her last years she and her husband came to New Creation United Methodist Church so we got to hug and reconnect. She is surely one of God's most beautiful angels as she was on earth. Sympathy to her husband and sons. Jean and Jim Thompson

“ Ilene brightened every room she entered with her friendliness and southern charm, which she passed down to her children. She leaves an amazing legacy. May the Lord's perpetual light shine upon her as she rests with him in heaven.

“ I don't remember a time without her. She was one of my mom's best friends. I stayed over her house after school with her and her mom. She has always been there for me and I had the privilege of caring for her thru some trials and tribulations as well as celebrating her Jim's wedding and life. They were adorable, together, loving, adventurous, funny and full of life. I'm glad they found each other. I will always treasure the times I had with her. Love and prayers. Cyndi and Bobby Becker

“ Ilene and her mother, Eileane, were close friends of our dad, Fletcher Carson Sr., and later of Fletcher Jr. and his wife. She liked to call him her brother because she cared for his dad so much. She was the kindest and most lovely lady we have ever met. Her heart was about loving, caring, and helping people. She was a unique and beautiful soul. She is certainly dancing with the Angels. Our sincerest sympathy to her family. Fletcher W, Carson Jr., and Barbara Carson Chesapeake, VA

“ I never met Ilene personally, but I know she must have been a fine woman. Steve and Herbie always spoke so lovingly of their mother that I feel that I know of her character through them. Ilene certainly did a fine job of raising a wonderful family. Steve, Matt and I will be praying for you as you go through this difficult time. Please reach out if we can do anything for you. Much love, Aimee.
