“ There is not much to say to console someone who has lost a parent. Once it happens your entire world changes. But it is at this time I can advise you Tom, to be grateful for all the wonderful times you've shared with your father. Both good times and bad have helped shape the person you are now and the person he was in his lifetime. He has truly earned his place in Heaven and has someone very special to be proud of and look down upon. Please accept my humble condolences and know that I and everyone in Meriden are here for you.##imported-begin##Erica Mesaros##imported-end##
