“ DEATH is an enemy of life, because we have a built-in desire to live and enjoy life with our family and friends forever. When we lose our loved one, for what ever reasons we may believe, it is distressing, because we miss them very much. At these times, we need encouragement and hope so that we can cope with our lost. For that reason, we can be encouraged by reflecting on the promises that God has given us thru his word the Bible, concerning the hope of seeing our love ones again. I hope that you find comfort in reading these scriptures. John 11:11-44, John 5:21, 28, 29 and Revelation 21:4. My prayers are with your family.

Sincerely,

Karen Cross###imported-begin###Karen Cross###imported-end##

“ Melody,
We were saddened to hear the news about your mom. We know how you are feeling right now, but remember she will always be a part of you and will be with you in your heart. Remember that she is with the Lord and He is taking good care of her. She is no longer in pain and can do all the things she loves again. She is sharing time with Corky too! Remember the good times you two have shared and it will brighten your day. We love you and are here for you anytime you need us.

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time. I can honestly say that time heals all wounds but time is what it will take, speaking from experience. “ Melody,
My family received three cards with the following verse. May it bring comfort to you as it did us.
*A Mother's Love Is Forever
As Children we can't comprehend or fully realize
The meaning of our mother's love,
How tender and how wise,
The patience and forgiveness that are part of every day,
The unexpected "little things" she does in her own way.
Years go by before we can look back on life and see
Through older eyes and wiser hearts her love and loyalty,
And yet it's these and other things we'll hold so dear,
For memories of her steadfast love will keep her ever near.
I never got to meet your Mother personally and I really didn't have to know that your Mother was a blessed woman. I can see that through you.
Love you,

My deepest condolences to both of you and your families. Jackie was such a great person to work with and she loved her children so much. Though I had lost contact with her when I left Maryview I did see her out and about every so often.

“ Your mom was one special lady. She never complained about her illness, and always maintained a great attitude. I admired how she continued to work, even when she didn't feel like it. She was not a quitter! Having seen her Monday, I am thankful that she is no longer in pain, and that she is at peace. I am blessed to have had the opportunity to know her.##imported-begin##Brenda Kallaher##imported-end##

My deepest condolences. Somehow words are inadequate to describe a person's life and their effect on others, but we try anyway. One of the best things your mother left you were the memories. Those will live forever. You will be in our thoughts and prayers.

How do I even start to tell you how special my friendship with Jackey was? We shared our lives, found out of the way places to eat Jackey knew them all..., talked until we were tired. She came to see me after we moved to NC, and we rocked on the porch, used the swing, and laughed and talked some more.
Your mom was so kind, never complained and just took things as they came. I admired how she kept on working and refused to give in to her illness. She was a very special lady, and I loved her as a close friend. I will miss her so much, and know you will, too.
My prayers are with you and the rest of your family. Love,
