“ Allen ... my heartfelt condolences. I have many warm memories of spending hours of my childhood at your mother's house. Annie, John Raby, Warren, Jack, you, and Curry. My grandmother, Sarah; my mother, Little Sarah; my father, Billy; Grayson; and I all warming ourselves at Christmas standing over the big heating grate in the hallway floor. Most of all, I remember gorging myself with the wonderful figs that grew alongside of the house ... never found their equal. Wishing you all the best, Martin.
