“ *What really matters is not what we bought but what we built;
Not what we got but what we shared;
Not our competence but our character;
Not our success but our significance; You lived a life that mattered to all of those you loved and to all who loved you.*

Linda, Kristine and David,

Perhaps they are not stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones shines down to let us know they are with us.

“ My earliest memories in my life are filled with you and my dad nights on end getting ready to go racing. Never knowing how influential you were to us not only him but me and jimbo. Jim and jim show on saturdays. I have pictures of the race cars i remember learning how to tell time off the clock with the grandstock behind it. You were and are such a mentor to me and always will be. Ill never forget the first time i strapped into my race kart and i remembered you telling me when i was a kid the man thing is to just have fun. I am a 17 year mechanic professionally because of all the things you taught my dad and us boys about in the garage. Till we meet again Mr. Jim i hope you have a few race cars ready for us when we get there. Ill always remember you and your spirit lives on with us all. God speed my friend.

“ The day I asked for Kristine's hand in marriage...the second time...and you quipped "are you sure you know what your getting yourself into". The look on your face when you saw and your granddaughter and grandson for the first time in the hospital and how nervous when you held them like fragile eggs. When Kristine and I took you to the Daytona 500 for the first time and surprised you with pit entry passes, you looked like a kid in a toy megastore. Mostly I will remember the rudder steers you gave me when I needed council and how compassionate you were knowing I had lost my father so long ago. You are and always will be one of the most loving and tender men I have ever met and it makes me proud to call you Pop...Love H
