“ My little cousin Jimmy was born when I was an adult. I saw him grow from a gentle, sweet little boy into a nice, kind, compassionate, decent young man with a really big heart. Jim was always there if you needed him. Our families shared birthdays, anniversaries and many visits together and Jim and brother Chuck were always there. My heart is heavy as I think of him and all he endured during his illness. We will miss him. RIP my little cousin Jimmy.

“ Jimmy will always be part of my favorite memories with my Mom and his.....playing bingo at good old St Joes. Myself, my Mom and Martha would work the first shift in the kitchen during bingo and then Jimmy would meet us and we would all spend the night trying to win money. I just know Martha & Charlie were there on Tuesday to help him make that last journey. I wish I could have gotten down to see him. Please know, Chuck and all the Manion family, he was a very admired man. Keep him in your heart always.....
