“ Jimmy's passing has surely left a void in the Class of '72. Our reunions will not be the same. He was a great classmate and friend in those high school years, so much fun to be around and loved to laugh, as well as to give a laugh. It was so wonderful to reconnect with him on facebook for these past years. I thoroughly enjoyed his posts. Seeing the pictures of his family, that he dearly loved and cherished, and the pictures of the delicious foods he and Nancy prepared for catering and other events, especially those held at the church... My sincere prayers and sympathy to all family and friends. We will all miss his presence in our lives, but we are assured that he is now with God and all those that have gone on to the heavenly kingdom. May our Lord comfort you, hold you close and carry you through the days ahead... My love to all... God's blessings to you...

“ Class of 72, Jimmy you'll always be remembered. Glad to have met your ""Bride" Nancy as you so lovingly referred to her. Found memories of you from your first year on varsity football as a senior. You had a great sense of humor and a positive outlook on life. You left too soon, but GOD knows why. You'll be cooking those great meal in heaven.
May Nancy find comfort in your passing and until "We All Meet In Heaven, my friend".
