“ Living with my Aunt Libby for ten years, I grew up with Jane. So I was able to observe from my perspective memories of Jane that I had through the years! Jane was always pleasant, thoughtful and had a smile on her face! I remember the holidays as special times with Jane. She would recognize us kids by giving life saver candy fold out books as gifts. She was a very quiet and gentle soul who loved her church very much! R.I.P. Jane <3

“ I remember the many Christmas Dinners that I shared with Jane at the home of Elizabeth Willett. She was a lovely person and for the many years that we have been unable to see each other we have shared Christmas cards. I think I received one with a nice note either Christmas a year ago or this last Christmas. Rest in peace Jane. Love you.
