She was retired from Verizon. She was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Her greatest joy in life was her 3 children and 17 grandchildren.

She was predeceased by her husband, Needham E. Jones, Sr. and her second husband, Frank J. Scalise. She was also predeceased by two grandchildren, Joshua and Taylor Hancock. She is survived by her three children and their spouses, Gene and Edie Jones, Neena and Terry Hancock, and Jacque and James Taylor. Her grandchildren are James Taylor and wife Natalie, Needham Jones III, Chad Taylor, Layne Hancock, Janice Taylor, Jonathan Hancock, Zachary Taylor, Shannon Taylor, Trevor Jones, Tyler Hancock, Justin Taylor, Kyle Jones, Rachel Taylor, Sandy Taylor, and Caley Jones. She is also survived by sisters, Opal Smith, Jean Workman, and Sally Carter. She has three stepchildren, Ann Marie Donnelly, John Scalise, and Athena Waite as well as their children. She will be greatly missed by all who loved her. Her family will especially miss Sunday night at Grandma's.

A funeral service will be held at 1:00 PM Monday in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Portsmouth Ward by Bishop James Moore with burial in Greenlawn Memorial Gardens. The family will receive friends in Loving Funeral Home, Churchland Chapel Sunday from 6:30-7:30 PM and they suggest memorial contributions to the American Cancer Society.

Tribute Wall

“ Your mother and I became friends during our chemotherapy treatments at Virginia Oncology. We shared laughter and tears. I will remember her and her and how she valiantly dealt with her cancer. She loved you all as well as her grandchildren.

Peace to you and to Janice!

“ It was a pleasure to have worked with Janice at Verizon then C&P/Bell Atlantic in the Business Office environment. Her very caring and quiet manner was her trademark. She always contributed to make others day worthwhile. And I can attest to the fact that Janice LOVED HER FAMILY! There was always a special glow within Janice whenever she shared or spoke of her family. Always remember that she loved you. Allow God to carry you through. God bless you all.##imported-begin##Byron##imported-end##
