“ *To the Boone Family,
I was deeply saddened to hear of the passing of my classmate Jeff.
We graduated together from Manor High School and played in the Marching Mustangs band together. Jeff could really play those drums and I am sure he is playing them right now in heaven. My deepest sympathy to the entire family.*

“ So very sorry to hear about Jeff. We have known each other since elementary school but it was when he worked with my Mom at The Quality Shop in Portsmouth when we became closer as friends. Jeff was always playing the drums even at work always banging on something but seeing him marching in the band for the Manor Mustang was such a sight prayers for his boys and granddaughter and family. God bless you all

“ To the Boone Family,
I was saddened to hear of the passing of Jeff as we were schoolmates from Elementary School through High School graduating together from Manor High School in 1983. The last time I saw Jeff was during a worship service playing the drums for Olive Branch Baptist Church. We had not seen each other since high school and meeting in church made it such a joyful moment knowing our lives were in the hands of God. As I remember Jeff, I will always remember the joy and excitement he displayed in playing the drums whether for THE Manor High School Marching Mustangs or in the church. I hope that knowing Jeff is in our thoughts brings joy to your spirit. May God's Grace sustain you through this moment.
Sincerely,
Dr. Mark Whitaker
