

Jimmie Cox Daughety

July 27, 1927 - April 28, 2005

Portsmouth- Jimmie Cox Daughety, 77, died Thursday, April 28, 2005 at a local hospital. Mr. Daughety was a retired heating and air conditioning engineer with the Army Corps of Engineers, and a veteran of World War II, serving with honor in the U.S. Navy.

Jimmie is survived by his loving family, including his wife Mary Lou Daughety; three sons, Steve Daughety of Reston; Wayne Daughety of Dinwiddie; and Jeff Daughety of Suffolk; and six grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held at 2:00PM Monday in Meadowbrook Memorial Gardens by the Rev. Gary Alvis and Rev. Ruth Burgess. The family will receive friends Sunday evening from 6-7:30PM at Loving Funeral Home, Churchland Chapel. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Centenary UMC Building Fund, 3312 Cedar Lane, Portsmouth, VA 23703.

“ To The Family, I read of your loss and want to express my deepest sympathy. I also want to share the comfort of John 5:28,29 which assures us that those who have fallen asleep in death will receive a "resurrection" back to life when the earth is restored to a paradise. Revelation 21:4 says, "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore". While we await that wonderful time, please find comfort in these promises. Sincerely,##imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan##imported-end##

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Jimmie's passing. I actually met him working at the Corps of Engineers. However, we are also neighbors on Colonial Lane and fellow members at Centenary Methodist Church. I hope it helps to know that others remember him fondly and care in his passing. May God Bless Your Family and help you through this difficult time. “ I was very sorry to hear of your loss. Jimmie was quite a colorful and comical character in the workplace. From my first day in 1985, he helped keep me on the straight and narrow with his pull-no-punches attitude. But, his sense of humor really helped the day go by sometimes. I missed him when he retired and now I will miss him knowing he has left this world behind. My sincerest condolences to you, his family. Laura##imported-begin##Laura McClurg##imported-end##
