

Jimmy Davis

February 9, 2023

Jimmy Davis grew up in South Norfolk. He never had an enemy. Jimmy was like a big cuddly teddy bear that everyone loved. He would give the shirt off his back if needed.

Jimmy was a bingo caller at Portlock Norfolk and the South Norfolk Moose lodge. Jimmy was a member of the South Norfolk Moose lodge and a Legionnaire. A former Governor of South Norfolk, Steve Crawford, and Jimmy were good, close friends. When the door opened Jimmy was there. He loved calling bingo!

Jimmy was very close to Robert Gardner, (Jeanne's mate). They would go have coffee together and both loved little Jingles. Jingles was always the love of his life. He made sure Jingles got her food treats, and grooming. He loved it when she would prance around in her Halloween costume. He loved to sit outback in the swing and watch her catch squirrels. She was like a speeding bullet!

Jimmy liked to go to Dumar's on Monticello in Norfolk. Kathy Dumar always came out to meet and talk to us. She always gave a lot of attention to Jingles and always took her picture to put on Facebook.

Jimmy was my co-pilot and liked to go on trips every Saturday. We would go to yard sales. Jimmy Davis will be deeply missed by everyone.
