“ Coach Joe Bystrom was an amazing gymnastics coach. I had been with him for about two and a half years. He was the one that got me to do my first double-backhandspring and my first back tuck. He also got me started on getting my kip for the low bar. He was a great person, I thought of him as a grandfather. I will miss him dearly but I know now he is in a better place. ##imported-begin##Christine Pinell##imported-end##

“ We remember when we first signed Abbie up for Summer gymnastics camp at TCC in 2001; there was no question Abbie would join Joe's gymnastics team in Fall. Joe used to call Abbie "Abbie Dabby" and would always reward her efforts afer practice, he had a big bag of candy and the kids would get to choose their favorite after practice, Abbie loved it. Joe was always supportive and attended the local gymnastics events where all his past gymnast and their parents would get to visit with him and remember the times when he was their couch. Joe has a special place in our hearts. Our deepest sympathy. Greg, Judy, & Abbie##imported-begin##Greg, Judy & Abbie Tucker##imported-end##

“ I had the pleasure & the honor of working with Joe at Woodrow Wilson High School for six years 1979-1985. I still recall lots of great times with him to this very day - Just a fun, wonderful, caring teacher & a good friend to see each day at school or after school at one of our social gatherings! Sounds like he stayed true to his course throughout his life and remained a great guy from start to finish - He will be missed; & remembered fondly forever!##imported-begin##Sean Hickey##imported-end##

“ Mr. Bystrom was my art teacher at Hunt Mapp Middle School in 2002. . . I know that he touched my life and inspired me to do great things. He's the best art teacher that I have ever had and was always there to listen if we needed him. I remember we used to pick on him for his bald head : he would then jokingly tell us it was because of us that he went bald. I know he touched many lives and he will be greatly missed. ##imported-begin##Lynette Bowen##imported-end##

“ Joe and I worked together in the art department for a number of years before he retired. Because I move around the city visiting art classes, I frequently heard students say that Mr. Bystrom was their favorite art teacher or the best art teacher they had ever had. Joe was a true teacher and will be missed by scores of young people who benefited from his skill and support. I teased Joe about his love of scrounging for a cast off treasures and marveled at how hard Joe work. He always spoke so loving of your family. I am sorry for your loss.

Sincerely,

“ Coach Joe was our daughters gymnastics coach and what an impact he made on her from the start! He had such an amazing way with the kids and will never be forgotten. His smile lit up the gym and the kids! He knew how to get the best out of each and every one of them and they loved him for it!

Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you. You were so fortunate to call such an amazing man your husband, father, brother, and grandfather. What a legacy he left. “ We can't believe that we have to say goodbye. We don't want to. Joe was amazing with his ability to love others and inspire children to do things they had no idea they could accomplish. As soon as we met him, we knew he was special and as evidenced by the many tributes on his Caring Bridge page, we see that he has a long history of being a special person who touched many, many lives.

What a terrible loss to his family, us--his friends, and the community. What a wonderful gain for God and heaven.

Julie, Justin, Jennifer, and the rest of his family, may you find peace in knowing that Joe is pain-free and that he left an incredible legacy as a genuine role model. He is loved and missed by many and we could all only hope to be as big of a man as he was.

Hugs and prayers.##imported-begin##Marv, Shellie, Parker, and Jack Carlin##imported-end##
