“ Dear Nancy,
Although I did not have the pleasure of knowing your husband, I do want to extend my sympathy to you in your loss. We knew each other at Christ Church many years ago. I hope you will find comfort in the prayers we recited together those many years ago. Please accept my deepest sympathy.

“ I learned three things from my dad...dedication, loyalty, and hard work...all qualities that he demonstrated everyday of his life. By his example, I have been able to able to weather all the storms life has thrown my way from battling illness to keeping and working in the same job for thirty years. My dad's quiet strength has been a lasting, positive influence in my life and he will be truly missed.##imported-begin##John Clements, III##imported-end##

“ My Grandpa was an amazing man with a huge heart. He always had a smile on his face and could make a joke out of everything even if he didn't mean to. Grandpa, I love you and miss you dearly. Say Hi to meemaw and papa for me. Although I'm sad you are gone and that I didn't get to say goodbye I know that you aren't suffering anymore, and that's enough to bring a smile to my face. Love you Gramps!
