

John P. Ferrell

April 2, 2026

John P. Ferrell, 60, passed away peacefully on April 2, 2026 at his home surrounded by family and friends.

His family and friends knew him as an avid reader. He was a man who loved nature. He was an amazing artist. He loved a good find at an antique store and was a collector of very unique and beautiful items.

John was predeceased by his mother Patricia Ann Ferrell and his father John H. Ferrell. He is survived by his sister, Lynn McDermott and her husband James Walther; nieces, Chelsea, Gunter, and husband, Jeremy Gunter, Jackie McDermott; nephews Joshua McDermott, Noah McDermott; great nieces and nephew, Lexi, Carolina and Jamie; and a multitude of lifelong friends.

The family wishes to express a special thank you to Gentiva Hospice for their unwavering care for John and a heartfelt thank you to Kim Carden and Debbie Mills for their care love and support for John.

He requested no formal services. In lieu of flowers please consider making contributions to the American Cancer Society in his memory.

Tribute Wall

DT

“ John and I worked together at Brink's. He was a genuinely kind, funny person and a dedicated employee. Remember that he loved Halloween! I was very sorry to hear of John's passing and I am sending prayers to his family to get through this difficult time Rest well John rest well.

Donna Tefft - April 12 at 09:10 AM

LL

“ I met John at Brinks and instantly hit it off and became good friends. Whether it was history, movies or just joking and laughing I enjoyed with John. To my buddy may you Rest In Paradise.

Lala

L Walker/ Lala - April 12 at 05:07 AM

DM

“ John was a very special and unique person he drew you in with laugh and kindness when John Sr. was sick I was amazed at the care and compassion he had for his dad it took very little to bring a smile to his face he had a special love for his family so glad I was a part of his life

Deborah Mills - April 11 at 03:18 PM