“ Barbara & Family,
It broke my heart to hear about the passing of Uncle John Paul. Even though it was rare we got the opportunity to see each other over the years, we are still family and it hurts to loose another family member. I am so sorry that I could not be there to pay my respects. My thoughts and prayers will be you as you deal with your loss. I hope that each of you will find some comfort in knowing that he has gone to be with the Lord and he is in a better place.##imported-begin##Pauline Regan##imported-end##

“ Dear Barbara,
I am so sorry for your loss of a wonderful man who helped to make my childhood so wonderful.
I will always keep him in my heart as "Doody". My memories of him as a funny, lovable, mischievous boy will always be followed by what a wonderful loving family man he became. He was a little brother I never had. As long as anyone lives who knew him he will be with us. Remember all the good memories and he will outlast us all. “ John wrote in their most recent Christmas card to me "Memories of our old friends become more meaningful as I grow older". My memories of John will always be with me: memories of his pride in his children, and his adoration of his grandchildren, and his abiding love for Barbara. His laugh and the memory of his terrible sense of humour, will stay with me, as will the memories of those wonderful dinners we would have whenever he was in London. Rejoice in his life and rejoice that you knew him!##imported-begin##Samantha Covington##imported-end##
