“ I just found out that Johnny passed away. I met Johnny 42 years ago. He was an extraordinary man. Talented, intelligent, funny, and passionate about music and politics. Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Johnny loved you both so much! We would talk every couple of weeks and he would always mention you both. Kevin, I think you were Johnny's best friend, he really loved you too. This is just so very sad. I will really miss you Johnny and I'll be praying that you are in a wonderful place joyously making beautiful music. Goodbye friend...##imported-begin##Lisa Harlow##imported-end##

“ John Parker began playing music with me when he was around 15 years old. We were like brothers and spent a great deal of time together playing music and just hanging out. We played together as Aquilla for many years , this included Bobby Nobles, Ronnie Smith, Buddy Hughes, and myself. We were brothers for life. We lost Ronnie to a botched medical procedure 4 years ago and another brother Buddy Brown this year. The world, certainly my world, will never again be as full with the loss of these brothers. I remember when in Aquilla we decided to use all Marshal amps and cabinets. I helped John get his. He was so proud of that rigg. For all of you that really knew John you will remember his love for life, how much his mom ment to him, and how much he loved music and his brothers he played it with. I will miss his smile, I will miss looking in his eyes and seeing into his soul the love he was always ready to share. I will miss my brother John.##imported-begin##Wayne Smith##imported-end##
