“ Kevin, and Johnnie ...just now discovered your loss. We are stunned and saddened by the news. We have many unanswered questions . Many years have passed since we have had contact with you, but you and your family will always be a part of ours. You all along with Corrine and Shawna will be in our thoughts and prayers. We still miss Lynn not being in our world, and now Todd. It would have been an honor to have known him as an adult. If he was like his mother he had a very kind giving nature. God bless you and your family Kevin.. love pat and Larry, Mitch, Troy and Jana.##imported-begin##Larry and Patricia Maxson Mitch, Troy and Jana ##imported-end##

“ Dear Mrs. Vance,
I was stunned today when you told me about the sudden death of your husband. Part of the joy of being a Pharmacist is getting to know the families that I care for. I am profoundly saddened by your terrible loss. Mr. Vance was always so friendly and personable. While in church this Christmas Eve I said a special prayer just for you and your family. I hope it will bring you comfort in some small way. Sincerely, Sue Gibson, Farm Fresh Pharmacy##imported-begin##Sue Gibson##imported-end##

“ Corinne, Shawna, Johnnie and family,

Todd will always hold a special place in my heart. I grew up as a teenager enjoying him as a baby. The many times we had family gatherings and one of the greatest kids to babysit. he is especially remembered to me for being my ringbearer at our wedding. I'll always remember the Christmas you and the family dropped by on Christmas day and Corinne was due in 5-6 weeks. We had just had Leyda and we had her all of 30 minutes that Christmas when you came. How special for us to share that time together. We love you all and will pray for you at this difficult time. Shawna will always be reminded by all of us what an important member of our family that Todd was. May God Bless you all. Love, Annie & Clif##imported-begin##Annie & Clif Vertz##imported-end##

“ My buddy Todd, We had so many good times joking, laughing, working on numerous telephone troubles, kicking field goals at the football field, calling each other for either music trivia, while on a ride at an amusement park ride, during a concert. I will especially miss our weekly college football talks. You will be missed.

“ What can I say about Todd Vance; other than him being a fun loving person who I could always count on to answer all my voice mail questions.

Other than him being able to really toss a football!! Man he could really throw!!

Other than both of us being Maryland Terrapin fans, and please, never call it a turtle.

Other than him knowing every hip-hop song and artist from the 80?s on up?.

Other than him seeing me in a foul mood and saying ?Hey dude a quick game of PIG?, and we would shoot NERF basketball hoops in his cube.

Other than him saying, ?Hey lets go to lunch?, and I would say ? nah maybe next time?, and of course he would say, ?Man come on I, its on me.?

Other than him bopping over to my cube and making me, draw a tattoo on his leg with a magic-marker, just to see how it would look.

Other than him always challenging me in some way with, ?Hey, bet you can?t hit that shot!?!?, or ?You?ll never be able to do that.?

Other than him letting me hit from the women?s T when we played golf or ignoring a stroke or 2 or 3 or 4.

Other than him teaching me, at 30-something years old, how to throw a curve ball, at the job?.inside the building.?

Other than him truly being able to empathize with, understand and share my personal triumphs and failures as a man.

So again I pose the question, what can I say about Todd Vance? I would have to say, not much.

Simply because mere words will never capture the love and professional respect that he and I shared over the years.

We will all miss you Todd Vance.

I will miss you Todd Vance.
