John Willie Vann, 82, passed away Monday, June 29, 2015. He was a native of Suffolk, VA and the son of the late Dempsey and Pearl B. Vann. Whether you knew him as John, Jay, or J.W., you knew him as an honest and generous man. He never met a stranger and would always have a smile, especially when he could joke on you good-naturedly. He will be missed in so many ways.

“ To the family of J.W. Vann,
My name is Fred Brinkley from Suffolk, Va. I grew up at Cypress Chapel and remember J.W. and Ruby. My Dad was part owner of Knight and Brinkley Store at Cypress Chapel. I remember J.W. when he worked at Harris Tire. He and his lady friend would come to the Bethlehem Ruritan Club Music JAMS. I am sad to hear that he passed. I know you will miss him. My mom and dad would visit the family when we were kids. We will keep you in prayer. Fred and Janet Brinkley 129 Manning Rd. Suffolk, VA.

“ I had no idea Uncle Jay had been so ill. He and Aunt Ruby were a big part of my life growing up. I've been on many a fishing trip with him over the years between Nags Head, Hatteras, and the James River. I have so many great memories of the days when he lived on Madden Terrace and all the visits to Coleman's Nursery. He passed on his love of fishing and a good piece of peppermint candy to my oldest son Tyler. I will treasure the memories I hold near and dear to my heart. My thoughts, love, and prayers to Mike, Kathy, Jennifer, Denise, and their families.
