

John Joseph Vogt

December 29, 2015

John Vogt, 86, passed away peacefully on December, 29, 2015 at Lake Prince Woods Retirement Center in Suffolk, Virginia. A lifelong resident of Dubuque, Iowa he moved here in February 2014 to be closer to his son John's family while he bravely struggled with dementia. Even as his memory faded he remained a devoted husband and wonderful, caring father whom it has been said could make friends with anyone who knew him for more than a few minutes. He was predeceased by his father John, mother Mary and his youngest brother Ray .

He is survived by his wife of 67 years, Naomi, four children, Dr. Gerald Vogt of Cleveland GA, Tom Vogt (Karen) of Mesa AZ, John Vogt (Robin) of Portsmouth, VA and Sue Williams (Scott) of Baldwin MO, 12 grandchildren, including Matt Vogt (Kristen) of Dubuque, Mike Vogt of Chicago, Beth Johnston (Keith) of Suffolk, Mark Cooper (Christie) of Carrsville and Paul Cooper (Amanda) of Portsmouth, and 13 great grandchildren. His favorite activities were fishing, watching the Cubs and playing the penny slots at the local casinos.

A very special thanks to the entire staff at Lake Prince Woods, and Heartland Hospice who cared for Dad during his time there. Their support and love will never be forgotten and we will always consider them our extended family.

Burial will be in Dad's beloved Dubuque, Iowa at a date to be determined.

Tribute Wall

“ My deepest sympathy to John and Robin and the loss of John's father. It is never easy losing a loved one. Just know he will be forever in your hearts.

*Camille Cagle
Portsmouth, Virginia*

Camille Cagle - January 03, 2016 at 01:30 PM