“ I was saddened to learn the news of the passing of yet another Coast Guard "shipmate" which reminds us of our own mortality. He was a respected Chief and co-worker and will be missed by many. My sympathy and best wishes go out to his family.##imported-begin##Jack Howe, CWO4COMM, USCGret##imported-end##

“ I READ OF THE LOSS OF YOUR LOVED ONE AND WOULD LIKE TO EXPRESS MY DEEPEST SYMPATHY. DURING THESE TIMES IT IS ESPECIALLY IMPORTANT TO DRAW CLOSE TO GOD THRU PRAYER. IT IS ALSO A TIME TO REFLECT ON THE PROMISES THAT HE HAS GIVEN US THRU HIS WORD THE BIBLE CONCERNING THE HOPE OF SEEING OUR LOVED ONES AGAIN IN THE "RESURRECTION" JOHN 5:28,29. I HOPE YOU FIND COMFORT IN THIS SCRIPTURE AND OTHERS. REVELATION 21:3,4##imported-begin##Patricia Alford##imported-end##

“ Although I did not personally know Chief Lindquist, as a fellow chief, I'd like to offer you the following poem. I hope it brings you some amount of comfort.

Gone From My Sight

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength. I stand and watch her until at length she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.

Then someone at my side says: ?There, she is gone!?

?Gone where??

Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.

Her diminished size is in me, not in her. And just at the moment when someone at my side says: ?There, she is gone!? there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout: ?Here she comes!?

And that is dying.

“ Smitty and I have had you and your family in our prayers over these last several weeks. I can only imagine how difficult it has been. I know your faith will up hold you through the days ahead. Your family at Centenary is ever present for you. Sorry that Smitty could not attend the prayer service today as he had to be at Annual Conference early to help with the Youth Delegation. Yours in Christ, Janice Smith###imported-begin##Janice & Waverly Smith###imported-end##

“ Dear Lord, Thank you for this day. Hold my hand and give me courage to carry the cross You have chosen for me. Let me never complain. Let me smile and give strength to my family and friends and to all I come in contact with. I accept what I have and will not ask, "Why me?" I will fight until You take me because it is my belief that I was made to serve You on earth - and death is my final reward.

Gina, you and your family are constantly in my prayers. I offer you my deepest condolences on your loss and pray that your days will brighten a little more each day as time goes on. Your friend,
Rod##imported-begin##Amilcar##imported-end##
