“Joyce was a kind and gracious woman. She was always smiling and never spoke a word against anyone. She radiated love to all she knew. She loved the Lord and I know she is now at home and at peace with Him and no longer in pain. We talked about how she was in a “win-win” situation. She said if God healed her, she would be very happy but if He called her home, that would be fine too and there was no way she could lose. I will miss her, her smile, her gentleness and her kindness but I know that I will see her again one day. I love you, Joyce. You were a very special person in my life.
