

Juanita Austin Barber

May 10, 2020

Juanita Austin Barber, 92, went home on Mother's Day, May 10, 2020. She was a native of North Carolina. The daughter of the late Clennie and Soloman Eure. Juanita loved being a homemaker and a mother. She epitomized the Proverbs 31 woman. She enjoyed cooking and caring for others. She loved the Lord and was currently a media member of Jimmy Swaggart ministries.

Juanita was predeceased by her first husband, Bentley Willis Austin and her second husband, Marvin Edward Barber. She is survived by her children, Anne Austin and husband Kenny, Diane Cook, Denise Freidlin and husband Rick, Kenneth "Ken" Austin and Bentley "Ben" Austin; grandchildren and great-grandchildren. We love and miss you. Juanita will be greatly missed by her friends and family.

All services at this time will be private.

No visit with Juanita was complete without words of salvation and a scripture reading...let her leave you with one of her favorite scriptures:

"Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore." Psalm 16:11.

One of her favorite poems...

The Weaver

by Grant Colfax Tullar

My Life is but a weaving
Between my Lord and me;
I cannot choose the colors
He worketh steadily.
Oft times He weaveth sorrow
And I, in foolish pride,
Forget He sees the upper,
And I the underside.

Not 'til the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly,
Shall God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why.
The dark threads are as needful
In the Weaver's skillful hand,
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned.

He knows, He loves, He cares,
Nothing this truth can dim.
He gives His very best to those
Who choose to walk with Him.
